

The Arc Hires Sarah Clark as Recreation Coordinator for Arc Park

Sarah Clark has joined The Arc Lane County as the recreation coordinator for the Arc Park.

Originally from New Jersey, Clark moved to Eugene in September to start a Master's of Nonprofit Management program at the University of Oregon.

Clark has worked with individuals who experience disabilities for more than 15 years. She has also studied dance, art, and yoga throughout her life.

Sarah Clark, The Arc Lane County's new recreation coordinator

Clark with her dog, Bueller.

Clark is excited to join The Arc Lane County team, where she will help bring the wonderful vision of the Arc Park to life.

As the Recreation Coordinator, Clark will organize free fun and inclusive activities for people all ages and abilities this summer. Expect to see art, dance, and music activities, yoga and exercise classes, concerts, and much more.

"I cannot wait to meet people inside the new Arc Park this summer!" says Clark.